

GET WILD

COOL CATS CLUB

One sunny day in spring...

...three girls met on the playground. The first was girly and loved all things sparkly pink and pretty. She had a heart-wallpapered bedroom, played with dolls, & was the neighborhood kitty rescuer. The second girl was a tomboy at heart. She wore her dad's baseball hats to school even though it broke the dress code and she ran faster than all the boys. The third girl was a free spirited dreamer. She made daisy chains & friendship bracelets at lunch. She liked to paint beneath the moonlight and she would talk to the flowers.

On the swings the girls talked about their favorite things & decided to form a club to seal the friendship. The club was based on clothing, cats and all things cool. At recess the girls would meet in the sandbox to discuss outfit plans and secret passwords. When the bell rang the girls would leave written in the sand, "cool cats club".

The girls grew up and life changed, but one thing remained the same...

They needed to feel the wild wind in their hair & Freedom at their feet.

So they dropped everything, hopped in the car & started to drive away from it all.

They drove up to where the trees are painted the richest green, & the sky shows it's deepest blue.

The sun kissed their faces & they kissed back.

They felt at home in the unknown.

They roamed around prancing...

...pawing and playing around

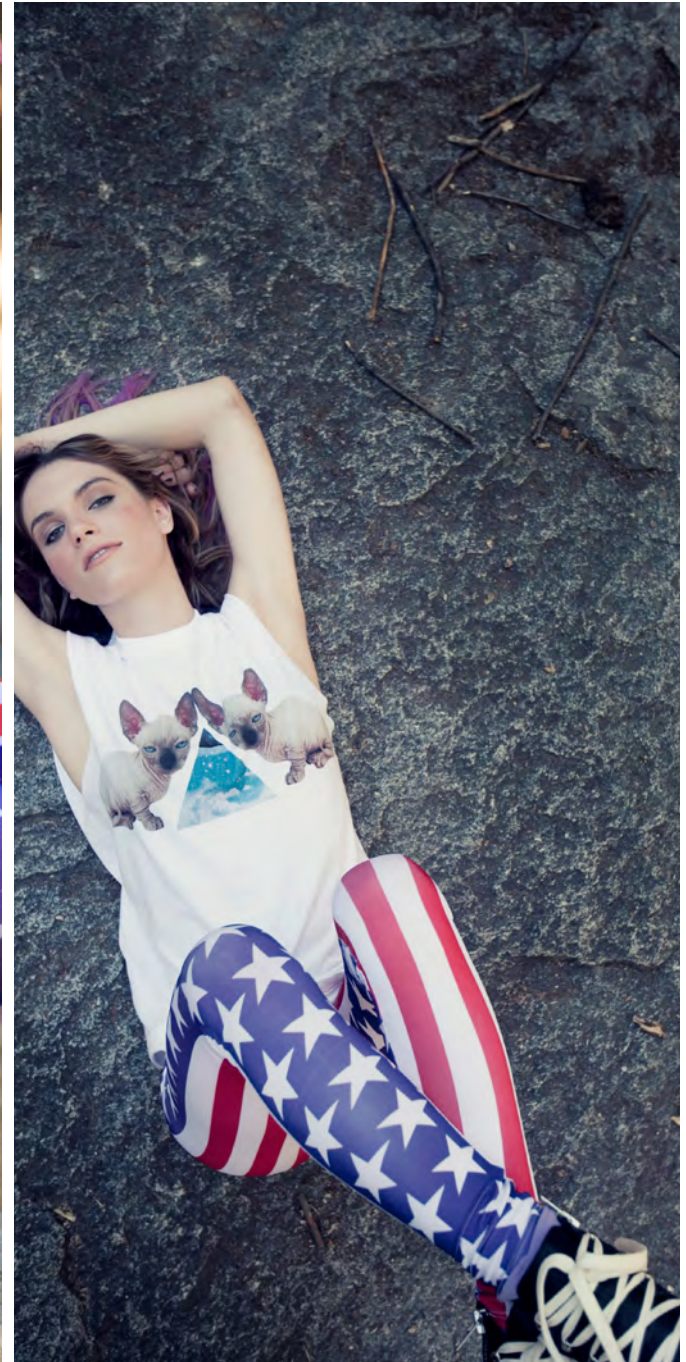

...like they had 9 lives.

WE SPENT THE DAY FEEDING OUR CURIOSITY,
DANCING WITH THE WIND, & LAUGHING
TILL IT HURTS. WE NAPPED ON THE VELVET
LOPES & LAZY SURRENDERED TO THE SKY,
SHARING CANDY & OUR SECRETS
TODAY WE WERE OUR TRUEST SELVES ♡

“curiosity killed the cat...
but, satisfaction brought it back”

-CCC FOREVER!
